Absinthe the Popular Color For Every Woman's Spring Hat

Monieur L'Artiste, the god, the fiend, call him what you please, was musing over the next place he would go, having finished his dinner and called for his liquor.

"I must go somewhere for an idea in color, with which to please every woman in the spring hat," he said. He raised the liquor glass, at that moment the light flashed upon it. The idea had come! Absinthe was the color! And the message flashed like the light.

Within a day the windows of Paris shops reflected the color of absinthe after-dinner drink. And by wireless it seemed to come to these same shops of ours.

At the risk opening yesterday there was the very hat reflecting the idea of the color. It is a most bewitching, enticing, reaching-out sort of hat, the brim not so wide, but lifted high over the head, and showing the hair waved over the ear. A "just so," and the other side of the brain, refusing to be upturned, lies flat as a board.

Ready for Conquest. "Absinthe" may mean for conquest when it gets it on. There is a hand of absinthe in the hair, and the woman is the most important part of the structure of the hat.

She gets that first, makes sure that it is there, and then begins the campaign against the hat. It is the hat of the future, it is the hat of the present, it is the hat of the past. It is the hat of the future, it is the hat of the present, it is the hat of the past.

It is the hat of the future, it is the hat of the present, it is the hat of the past. It is the hat of the future, it is the hat of the present, it is the hat of the past. It is the hat of the future, it is the hat of the present, it is the hat of the past.

THE SERVANT QUESTION SOLVED

So Far as This Lady Is Concerned—She Doesn't Seem to Need One.

Pollack, La. Mrs. T. S. Blain, of this town, has the following to say, which should be of interest to women generally: "For months my health was very bad, and the medicines I took did not seem to do me any good."

"I was very weak and nervous, and some days I could not be up. I asked my husband to get me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, to try, and before I had taken one bottle I was up and doing my work. Before I commenced taking Cardui I had such spells I was not able to do anything. Now, I have only taken three bottles of Cardui in all, and I feel fine."

"A few months ago I weighed 135 pounds. Now I weigh 115, and I do all my own work, cook, wash and milk, and feel like I did when I was 'twelve'."

"Taking Cardui has cured me."

As a relief from the distressing symptoms of womanly ailments, nothing has been found during the past 50 years that would take the place of Cardui.

Its superiority is still unquestioned as a build, building tonic for cases of womanly weakness where tired nature needs help. Made from purely vegetable ingredients, Cardui has no after effects and can do you nothing but good.

Try Cardui.

Catcher Reynolds Reports;
Joe Dunn Arrives Today;
Pitcher Hamilton Signed

By Ben Beer.

REPORTS from all of the Southern league training camps report the "great prospect" and the "best of all" in the history of the league. That city someone is going to be disappointed. We've got some of those prospects over here.

Joe for Life.

THE FEDERALS could not stir two players in organized ball, no matter what inducements the "best of all" offered. These men are Christy Mathewson and Hans Wagner. They are with their present clubs for the remainder of their lives. They are with the club owners of those teams until they die.

Another Case.

THE FEDERALS should be the friends of the ball players for life. They have unquestionably been the cause of more money being paid to the players than any other organization in the history of the game.

Will They Agree?

BIRMINGHAM has produced more ball game runners in the Southern league than any other city. It has produced as many as all the other cities combined. Will they repeat this year?

His Record.

IRA THOMAS, the hard working catcher of the Philadelphia Athletics, has received his Philadelphia Athletics record for the coming season. He has received a contract for the coming season. He has received a contract for the coming season.

Get Them Both.
